

POST-DISPATCH
MUSIC ALBUM=

WE'LL MEET AGAIN

WORDS AND MUSIC BY W. T. FRANCIS AUTHOR OF
"I'LL LOVE YOU TILL I DIE," SUPPLEMENT TO THE

ST. LOUIS
POST-DISPATCH

SUNDAY,
JULY 8TH
1900..

KRIEGER

PUBLISHED BY ARTHUR W. TAMS.

WE'LL MEET AGAIN.

Words & Music
by Wm T FRANCIS

Moderato.

When we part-ed in the springtime you and
With your hands close folded in my own I

I Hea - vy la - den seemed my heart with sob and prayed That a love like ours might nev - er be be - sigh 'Till a ray of hope like sunshine af - ter rain Bid me trayed And though part ed now the part-ing shall be vain For I hope my love that we should meet a - gain, Shoull meet a - gain.

dolce

 know my love that we shall meet a - gain, Shall meet a - gain rall.

Tempo di Valse.

So loved one trust on, For soon shadows are gone, That have caused two fond hearts to re - pine ——— Say far - well to your

marcato e rall

fears, smile a - gain through your tears, that the world may be filled with sun -

marcato e rall

a tempo.

shine, with sun - shine So loved one trust on, For soon shadows are gone, That have caused two fond hearts to re - pine — Say far - well to your fears, smile a gain through your tears, that the world may be filled with sun - shine, with sun -

1.

Tempo I.

2.

shine. filled with sun - shine with sun - shine. —

D.S. rall. ff rall.